Paul Mitchell The School Albuquerque

STUDENTS WHO WITHDRAW

Students who withdraw from the program are required to empty their locker and gather all personal items. Any items left behind by the student will be stored for 30 days, at which time the items become the property of Paul Mitchell the School Albuquerque.

Students wishing to transfer to another institution must pay all monies owed to Paul Mitchell the School Albuquerque, and all applicable academic requirements must be met in order for student transcripts to be released.